

Statement of Intent

The aim of my panel of prints is to show a record of some of the wild life of southern Africa.

In selecting my photographs I am portraying animals both large and small in three groups.

Five of the smaller inhabitants of the Namib sand dunes. Five mammals and five birds.

I want to show something of the impact of South Africa on someone only accustomed to the environment and wildlife found in the United Kingdom.

C.G.Coates ARPS DPAGB